

"CONSPIRACY" HELD IN WELCH CASE

Smith Says He Was Offered $500
To Do "Dirty Work"—Dr.
Gibson Testifies

An attempt by attorneys for the defense to have that part of the indictment against James Welch, on trial for the murder of J. S. Thomson, charging conspiracy, stricken from the grounds of murder, failed Friday when Judge Charles Kerr overruled the objection of defense and sustained the position taken by Commonwealth's Attorney John R. Allen.

The motion was filed immediately after the commonwealth rested its case. The arguments on the motion were not heard before jury but were delivered in the office of Judge Kerr adjoining the courtroom.

Attorneys Maury Kemper and Samuel Wilson argued for the defense in favor of the motion maintaining that the commonwealth had failed to prove conspiracy and for this reason have that section of the indictment relating to it stricken from the indictment.

"The commonwealth has undoubtedly proved that an illicit and criminal armor existed between Mrs. Thomson and Welch. The finding of a letter on the person of Welch from Mrs. Thomson immediately after the shooting would go to prove a criminal conspiracy," said Colonel Allen in arguing against the motion filed by the defense.

"Welch was only at the Thomson home once when Thomson returned, the proof shows, and on that occasion he ran like a dog," Colonel Allen declared.

"I believe, Your Honor, that we have proven a conspiracy, according to the definition under the law, and submit the matter to your decision," said Colonel Allen in closing.

Judge Kerr, then overruled the motion of the defense and requested the defense to begin the examination of its witnesses. Attorney Maury Kemper asked the court permission to talk to his client before he was placed on the stand and this was granted. Judge Kerr then adjourned court until Saturday morning when it will convene at 8 o'clock.

During the morning session of court William T. Smith, a carpenter, was placed on the stand and declared that he had been offered $500 by Mrs. Thomson to "put somebody off." He said Mrs. Thomson admitted it was her husband.

According to Smith, Mrs. Thomson made four trips to his home on Lee street last fall. On her first visit Smith declared she said some one had told her he was "a pretty good scout," and asked him if he could do some "dirty work." Asking how much there was in it, he was told by Mrs. Thomson that she would pay him $500.

Smith declared he told Detective Veal of the visit of Mrs. Thomson the next day. Smith said that Mrs. Thomson was to have given him the money before he did the "work," that he might be able to pay his confessed crime who was to assist him in the crime.

The Kentucky river between Lexington and Richmond, was named as the best spot to get rid of Thomson, Smith said Mrs. Thomson told him.

In the cross examination, the defense attempted to get the witness to say he had been engaged in detective work or that he was a "pimp" for detectives. He admitted that he had done some work for a crime, of Cincinnati, on a horse stealing case, but that was his only employment as an officer.

Attorney Kemper also asked Smith if County Detective Thomas J. Beady was to pay him for his testimony. He replied in the negative. Smith said that he did not intend killing any one but that he had been told to get Mrs. Thomson to pay him the $500 so this might be used as evidence. Smith worked for Welch at one time, he said, being employed as a laborer on Welch's farm at Donerail.

Most of Friday was spent in the cross examination of Lucy Hockaday, 15-year-old negro nurse girl formerly employed by Mrs. Thomson and star witness for the commonwealth.

In several instances, she attempted to change her testimony from that which she had given Thursday but in most instances when re-examined by Colonel Allen again made her original statements.

The girl while on the stand identified the knife "picked up near the scene of the shooting, as that of Thomson. With the exception of a statement made to Attorney Kemper that Thomson had a knife in his hand when shot, which she later withdrew and said she saw no knife, when questioned by Colonel Allen, the girl's testimony varied very little from that given the day before.

"During the afternoon Dr. W. M. Gibson, of Richmond, superintendent of a hospital there, testified as to Thomson's condition when brought there after having drunk whiskey alleged to be poisoned. Dr. Gibson said, "When Thomson was first brought to the hospital, he was in a serious condition, having convulsions and being almost pulseless. He showed symptoms of being poisoned with strychnine and it was for this he was treated." Dr. Gibson said Thomson recovered sufficiently the next day to leave the hospital.

William Walker, a traveling salesman, gave his version of the shooting as he saw it, which practically agreed with the testimony of other witnesses given in the case. Walker declared he saw no weapons in Thomson's hands when he was shot by Welch.

Dan Cowdill, of the Phytian Home, was called next and described the shooting saying he saw no weapon. He said, however, he saw Mrs. Thomson get out of her automobile and go into the house.

THE WEATHER

Fair and somewhat warmer tonight; Sunday cloudy, probably followed by rain.

DISCIPLES' DRIVE SET FOR MAY 9-16

County Conferences Will Be Held
Over The State From April 12 To 17

The Kentucky drive for the Kentucky Division Disciples' World Movement will be held the week of May 9 to 16, it was decided at a meeting of the promotional committee held at Lexington.

As a preliminary, a conference of workers was held at Central Christian church at Lexington Tuesday, in charge of Directors Homer W. Carpenter and Joseph W. Hagin. It was announced that county conferences would be held by the Disciples in various sections of the State Apr. 12 to 17.

The workers' conference, participated in by those who are to constitute teams for the county conferences of the Kentucky Division of the Disciples' World Movement, addressed by Secretary Stephen J. Corey, of the Foreign Missionary Society; Miss Daisy June Trout, of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, and Robert M. Hopkins, Secretary of the American Christian Missionary Society. Other addresses were delivered by Director Joseph W. Hagin, Mrs. Louise Loos Campbell, Secretary Clifford S. Weaver and President R. H. Crossfield.

County conferences in about ninety counties of Kentucky will be held April 12 to 17; during these conferences the local organization in each district and county will be perfected for the financial drive May 9-16.

At the meeting of the Promotional Committee it was decided that Lind D. Cartwright, secretary of the Kentucky Christian Bible School Association, Louisville, should be made the treasurer of the State movement. The form of the pledge card was agreed upon, and has been submitted to the National Promotional Committee, of which Secretary J. H. McWhorter of New York, is the director.

A committee consisting of President R. H. Crossfield and Rev. J. H. MacNeil, of Winchester, Mrs. Louise Loos Campbell, of Lexington, and Lin D. Cartwright of Louisville, was appointed to apportion the amount for which Kentucky Disciples are asked to the various churches.

Rev. Joseph W. Hagin, who went to Covington Saturday in order to conduct Easter services in his home church, returned to Lexington Monday to prepare for the drive.

President Wilson is being advised of developments. He is finding it difficult to secure the right men on the Railroad Labor Board to represent the public who would quit business for the Board's work.

Reports indicate no curtailment of mail service and as yet passenger trains are little affected.

Shooting scenes and shooting deer were found to be not entirely incompatible when the Eugene O'Brien company, with Zena Keefe as leading woman and Ralph Ince as director, were at Saranac Lake recently getting scenes for O'Brien's latest picture, "His Wife's Money," which comes here Saturday.

A cloudy day with snow in the air, which the camera man voted N. G. for picture-making, furnished the star and director, Ralph Ince, with the inspiration of shooting deer—instead of scenes.

When Zena Keefe and others in the company heard of the plan they organized a nice, polite revolt, and delivered an ultimatum. They would either go along with the party or there would be no party. Ralph Ince was for putting down the insurance with a stern hand, but O'Brien threw the weight of his influence with the insurgents.

The result was that Miss Keefe shouldered a gun and the whole company set out through the woods. After hours of tramping O'Brien bagged the first deer. Both Miss Keefe and Ralph Ince shot a deer, and late in the afternoon the same three deer were "shot" again, this time by the cameras.

HAULING LOGS ON PNEUMATICS

RAILROAD STRIKE GROWS SERIOUS

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, April 10—The railroad strike has assumed more serious proportions, initial reports indicating 35,000 men out.

In Chicago, which the railroad brotherhoods regard as the key to the whole situation, somewhat improved conditions are noted but from other sections came reports of new walk-outs.

From New York came the announcement that an express matter embargo became effective today further tying up and crippling passenger service. It is also said that a passenger embargo will probably be necessary before night.

It is estimated that half a million workers in other lines are forced to idleness through the railroad strike.

Washington, April 10—High administration officials said today that should the railroad strike threaten paralysis of transportation, the federal government will have to intervene. It is believed, however, the authorized union leaders will be able to control the situation without government interference.

It is also said that rapidly spreading strikes might result in a show-down between union officers and strike leaders, and that this is as good a time as any for a strength test.

President Wilson is being advised of developments. He is finding it difficult to secure the right men on the Railroad Labor Board to represent the public who would quit business for the Board's work.

Reports indicate no curtailment of mail service and as yet passenger trains are little affected.

TRUCK TOURISTS TO EAT LUNCH HERE

Committee Appointed To Welcome Demonstrators When They Reach Here
April 21st

Geo. Q. Smith, A. R. Ford, W. C. Wells and O. O. Day were in Richmond Thursday to make preliminary arrangements for the visit in this vicinity of a caravan of pneumatic tired trucks on Wednesday, April 21st.

The unique motorcade is on a tour of education under the auspices of the Central Kentucky Truck Dealers Association.

Speakers will accompany the tour to explain the important part being taken by the motor truck and pictures will also be shown at night meetings.

Free demonstrations will be given on farms, in fruit groves, and at industrial plants to show that the pneumatic tired truck is faster, costs less to operate and does not do the damage to highways that other vehicles do.

It will also be shown that prosperity depends upon production and transportation and in communities where the motor truck has been adopted on a large scale there has been a great saving in the cost of distribution.

A local committee has been appointed to make arrangements to welcome the tourists. On the committee are: Mayor L. P. Evans, M. C. Kellogg, Burton Roberts, Will Luxon, Cecil Simmons, Everett Sandlin, Percy Reid, J. Hale Dean, J. P. Reeves, Marion Lilly, A. L. Foley and S. M. Sauffey.

A board will accompany the fleet and give a concert here. The value of the motorcade is over $100,000 and is the largest display of pneumatic tired trucks ever brought into Kentucky. They will arrive here from Paint Lick and will take lunch here.

HALDEMAN RESIGNS FROM COMMITTEE

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, April 10—Gen. W. B. Haldeman, Kentucky member of the Democratic National Committee, today announced his resignation on account of ill health.

He is a member of the Committee on Arrangements, for the Democratic national convention to be held in San Francisco next June. His physician said, according to the letter of resignation, the duties were too strenuous for Haldeman who "positively instructed" Haldeman not to make the trip to California.

Devoting a paragraph to his probable successor, General Haldeman asked that a Democrat be named who would support President Wilson's aims and policies.

Speakers will accompany the tour to explain the important part being taken by the motor truck and pictures will also be shown at night meetings.

OFFICIAL CALL FOR DEMOCRATS TO MEET

County Chairman R. B. Terrill
Publishes Call For State And County Conventions

Before he left for Hot Springs for a week or so, Democratic County Chairman Robert B. Terrill received from State Chairman C. A. Hardin, notice of the official call for the democratic county and state conventions, the latter of which will be held at Louisville, May 4th next. The call specifies that county mass conventions to select delegates to the state convention, be held in each county seat on Saturday, May 1st. Chairman Terrill has requested publication of the official call as formal notice to the democrats of Madison county of both the county and state conventions. The call as issued for these conventions is in full as follows:

Official call for Convention to be held in Louisville on May 4th, 1920, viz:

Be it resolved by the Democratic State Central and Executive Committee in joint session assembled, that, Whereas, the Chairman of said Committees has heretofore issued a call for these Committees to meet and take such action at this time as deemed wise and proper in the interest of the Democratic party;

Therefore, be it resolved that it is the expression of these committees that the action of the Chairman of said committees in calling said committees for the purpose herein indicated is now ratified and confirmed.

And whereas, the National Democratic Convention is called to meet at San Francisco, California, on June 28th, 1920, for selecting a Democratic candidate for President and Vice-President and adopting a Democratic platform.

Now be it further resolved by these committees that the Chairman and Secretary are hereby authorized to issue a call for a delegate convention to be held in the city of Louisville at the time hereinbefore stated for the purpose of selecting delegates to the said National Convention and for the purpose of selecting the members of the State Central and Executive Committees an adopting by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the Democratic party. And such call shall conform to the following requirements, to-wit:

First—A mass convention shall be held at 2 p. m. on Saturday on the first day of May, 1920, in each county in Kentucky, to select delegates to such convention, except where there are more than two legislative districts in any county, then there shall be a mass convention held in each of said legislative districts, provided further, that where there are two courthouses in any county which has only two legislative districts in such county then, there shall be a mass convention in each of said two legislative districts. Said Democratic State Convention shall be held in the city of Louisville, Kentucky, on the Fourth day of May, 1920, same to be selected by the Chairman of these committees.

Second—There shall be one delegate allowed for said counties and legislative districts for each One Hundred votes cast for Democratic electors in the Presidential election in 1916.

Third—The Chairman of the Democratic Committee of the respective counties and legislative districts shall select the place of the holding of such county and district convention preference to be given to the courthouses in the respective counties, provided where there is but one convention in a county it shall be held at the county seat. Such county chairman shall notify the voters of the time and place through the newspapers when possible. Where there are no newspapers, then by posted notices.

Chas. A. Hardin, Chairman, Democratic State Central and Executive Committees.

S. R. Glenn, Secretary, Democratic State Central and Executive Committees.

Decadent Fiction

A former magazine editor, now reformed, tells a significant story of a novel written by a well known author. The manuscript came into his hands and was read by three professional "readers", all of whom reported to him that the story was so indecent as to be unprintable, and "the public would not read it."

Used to be published by the same magazine he had been connected with. It was still a respectable magazine, too. The editor explained that the magazine had not changed, but its readers had. "The public not only stood for it, but ate it up and wanted more."

Anyone familiar with the present run of fiction will probably agree that "the gradual decadence" of taste on the part of the great mass of magazine readers has not only made readers less easily shocked but also actualy eager to embrace these "fishy" "What shall I say of this literature and the prevailing demand for and consumption of it?" asks the retired editor. "What shall I say? One word covers it all—it is a debauch."

Who is responsible? The writer says it is the New York magazine editors who have been "gradually feeding the public rotten sex stories" until they have demoralized its taste. The editors defend themselves, by saying that they have only been giving the public what it wanted all along. They take particular pains to explain that they minister to the western taste—by "western" meaning about everything west of the Appalachians—and that "they like this sort of thing out west."

A good many westerners, however, indignantly repudiated the charge, pointing out that there has been a similar decadence in the drama, and that American dramas, as everybody knows, are mostly made to suit the Broadway taste.

It is all right to know enough to come in when it rains, but the grass grows, the river flows and flowers live and blossom because they stay out.

Style Permanency Enhances Hudson's Famed Endurance

Lasting Design is the Natural Complement to the Durability of the Super-Six Motor

However mechanically good, a vast satisfaction is lost to the owner, if design changes in succeeding models mark his car out of date.

Thus style permanency must be a major factor in a car that serves for years.

Its value is exemplified by the earliest Super-Sixes, built nearly five years ago. In all essentials they are modern cars today. They are modern in appearance. They have lost none of their operating smoothness, flexibility or power. Their performance is characteristic of all Hudsons. Few would see in their looks or performance anything but a car of recent production.

Think Ahead When You Buy a Car

Time will bring you, too, the keenest appreciation of Hudson's mechanical endurance and style stability.

Usually, you will find new worthwhile ideas first in Hudson. But they must earn their place by merit. They must effect a real improvement.

Undoubtedly, thousands of Hudson owners chose it primarily for its beauty of design, its luxury and distinction of appearance.

But let nothing blind the real issue. It is performance; and endurance is foremost.

DEATHERAGE-REID MOTOR COMPANY, RICHMOND, KENTUCKY

Speed and power have their place. But they are secondary. Hudson has no cause to under-rate them. For it holds the stock car speed and power records. And the Super-Six motor has beaten the world's fastest racing cars, not once, but many times.

Why the Super-Six Principle Gives the Mastery

The records prove it is open champion. It draws no distinction of type, size, cylinders or price. It has won against the field.

But Hudson could not hold such supremacy without some basic advantage that others cannot use.

Its dominance lies in the Super-Six motor which controls vibration. Perfection would mean a vibrationless motor, free of friction. No machinery is that. But the Super-Six motor comes within 10% of it—closer to the ideal than any other type. Nearer approach seems impossible.

In the exclusive Super-Six motor, power is increased 72%, and motor efficiency 80%. Endurance is practically doubled.

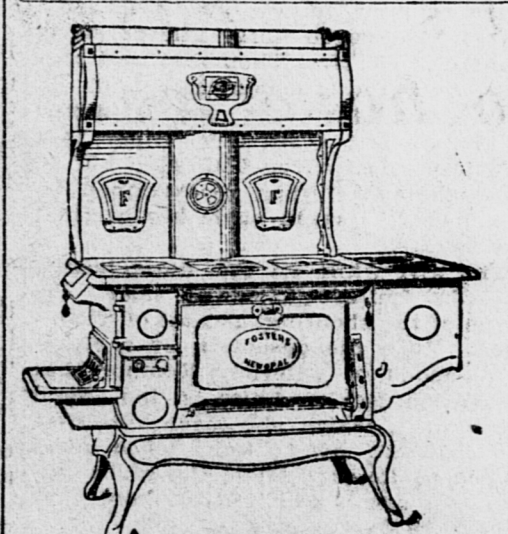

Naturally such a car is in demand. Since it was brought out five years ago, it has been the largest selling fine car in the world. This year, as in all years previous, many who want Hudsons will have to wait for delivery.

Broadus-Bellamy

Quite a surprise came last Wednesday night, April 7, when it became known that Mr. Hobart Bellamy and Miss Sarah Broadus quietly left for Knoxville, Tenn., where they were married the following day. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. W. D.

Broadus, a prominent farmer of this county. She is one of Madison's most industrious and popular girls who has won a host of friends by her kind words and deeds. The groom is the oldest son of Mr. J. J. Bellamy, who is also a prominent farmer of the county. Young Bellamy saw fifteen months of active service during the world war, on board the U. S. S. Susquehanna. Since he has been released from the U. S. Navy he has returned to the farm. He too is a successful farmer and one of the most esteemed young men of the entire community. The charming couple have a multitude of friends and relatives who extend to them their heartly congratulations wishing them a very successful and happy life together.—Contributed.

Entertained at Arlington

Miss Elizabeth Hanger was hostess to a very informal card party Thursday evening honoring her house guest,
Miss Mary Hardin Vaught, of Lexington. Others who accepted the delightful hospitality were Miss Lucia Bennett, Miss Marie Langford, Miss
Mary Elizabeth Luxon, Miss Carolyn Rice.

Mrs. C. L. Tipton has returned from a visit to Williamsburg.

Mr. Charlie Rice, of Rice's Station was a visitor here this week.

Mrs. Mary Haden, of Waco, has en-

Nature's Purest Herbs are combined to make this Invigorating Beverage

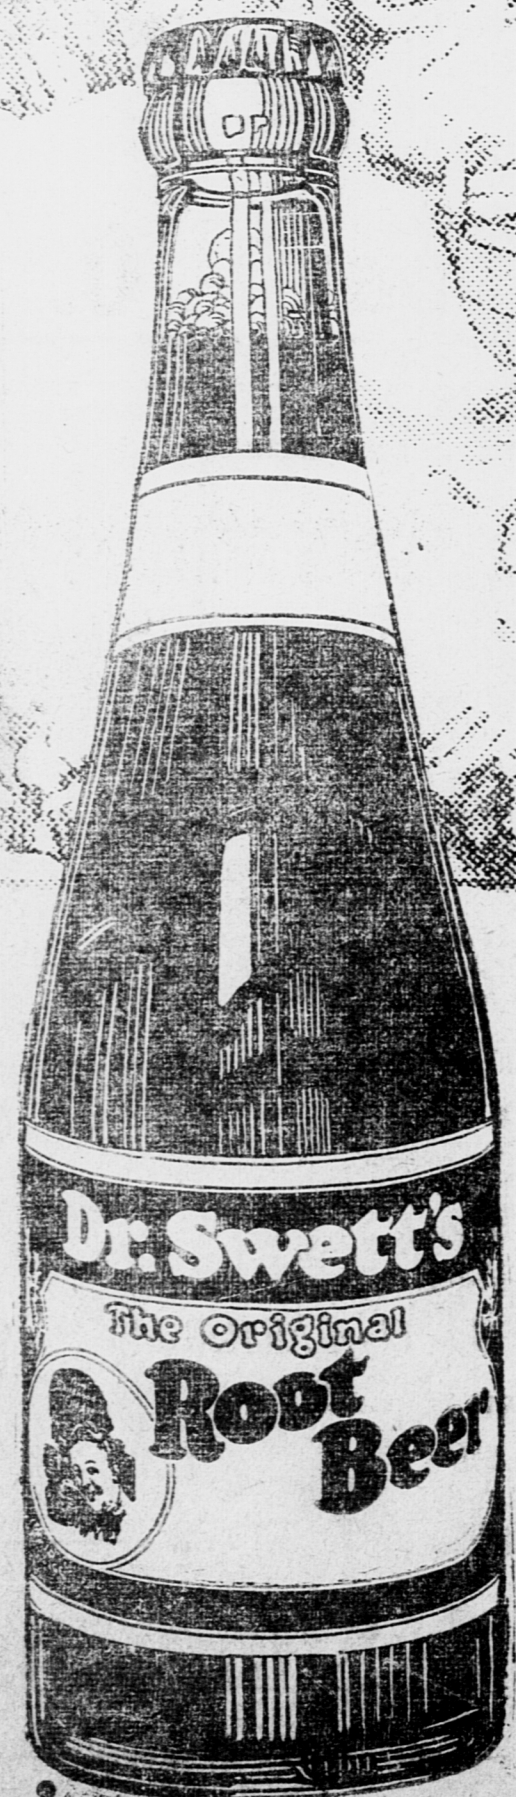

According to the famous formula developed by Dr. Swett over sixty years ago.

A FAVORITE drink for more than four generations, Dr. Swett's Root Beer is welcome everywhere, "from Childhood to Old Age."

In its making, familiar herbs that you know, are skillfully blended to give a taste and flavor you enjoy.

Checkerberry Leaves impart their familiar and pleasant taste,
Wintergreen adds its snap and flavor.
Spikenard affords a mildly stimulating effect.
Sassafras Root improves and blends the familiar flavors of the other herbs,
Birch Bark tones down the richer flavors of other ingredients.
Hop Flowers add the mild tonic effect that invigorates
Sarsaparilla acts as a blood purifier, making the beverage beneficial.
Juniper and Juniper Berries serve to stimulate mildly, and add to the smoothness of the taste.

These herbs are gathered from the fields and sorted—only the perfect plants, roots and barks are used—the result is a pleasure and satisfaction that you get from no other beverage.

Ask for it at your Soda Fountain
Buy it by the Case for Your Home

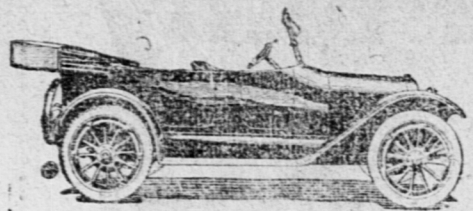

When you are looking for something refreshing to drink during the day, ask for Dr. Swett's Root Beer at your Soda Fountain.

When you are wondering what to have at home to serve when your friends drop in, order a case of Dr. Swett's Root Beer from your grocer.

TROUBLE ON THE ROAD

According to a new dispatch sent from Harrodsburg, a profitable business has been developed in Mercer county by certain farmers on certain of her pikes, says the Wilmore Enterprise. They are pulling automobiles out of the ruts, when they (the automobiles) stick fast in the mud and are earning nearly as much a day as a bricklayer does—which is to say they (the farmers) are getting more per day, from the use of a team of horses and a crow bar, than the Governor of this great State gets for the use of his head.

For Sunday's work one man got fifty dollars. He could have made more but he thought it was wrong to work all day on Sunday and quit, when he had accumulated that much out of respect for the day and to calm his conscience. Presumably in church that night he put a dollar of it in the collection box and went to bed afterward with the comforting thought of a day well spent in doing good to the unfortunate, forty nine dollars worth.

At another place a horse and twelve automobiles got stuck in a hole and had to be pulled out and at yet another a Coca Cola truck was rescued before it sunk out of sight. At the time this is written Ben Long's report has not come in from Shaker Bend but we anticipate he will add to the list of the stranded and rescued. If there is anything doing the Bend usually gets her share in the excitement.

It is to be feared that the business of salaging stranded autos is becoming so profitable as to seriously threaten the timely sowing of tobacco beds, and thus cause a shortage in Mercer's staple crop. So far the farmers have not organized a union of auto savers, partly on account of the fact that the ground hog's prophecy has run its course and dryer roads may be expected from now on, and partly from the natural desire of each worker to keep what he makes and not have to shell out dues to lodge organizers, who, toil not, nor spin, (except in six cylinder machines) but rake off a percentage of earnings just as if they did.

While it is not the province of a commentator to suggest, it appears to us that if a high power derrick and crane, with proper "block and tackle" outfit were erected at the most flagrant place of the roads of that distressed county, it would greatly facilitate operations of raising and resoring lost cars and at the same time keep the road open for traffic. It is hard to run around a stranded machine in the middle of a road, and still harder to run over one, and the sooner a wreck is cleared away—as every railroad man knows—the quicker traffic can be resumed. It has been seriously under consideration to do this in Jessamine county, before her farmers have to be mobilized to the rescue, as they are in Mercer, for her road problems are largely the same, so far as ruts are concerned, and the sufferings of her travelers about as great.

FORDSON TRACTOR SELLS FAST

Bob Maupin, of the Richmond Motor Company is selling a lot of these Fordson tractors, which have been causing so much talk among the farmers. Among his recent sales were tractors to Virgil M. Gaines, J. L. Dozier, Miller Lackey and Wm. Parrish.

ESSEX WINS OIL LAND RACE

Defeating scores of other cars, an Essex won the right to file the first notice on a section of government land near Choteau, Montana. The occasion of the race was the recent signing of the Oil Leasing Bill by President Wilson. This threw open a tract of government land which was considered valuable because of its oil possibilities.

Throughout that section of Montana great preparations were made to invade the tract the instant it was thrown open to obtain the most valuable locations. It was a case of first served, so a young attorney who wished to file a claim enlisted the aid of Dr. H. J. McGregor, an Essex owner.

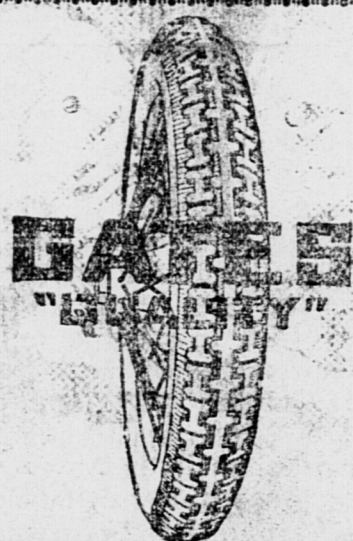

When the word came that the bill had been signed, the race began. The Essex was the first car to reach the tract, covering 20 miles of snow covered roads in 26 minutes, thereby gaining oil rights which may be worth a fortune.

A FAMOUS OLD CAR

An exhibit of unusual interest at the recent automobile show in San Francisco was the once famous "999" racing car, the champion of the world Ford nearly 20 years ago and the first car to cover a circular track mile in less than a minute.

On the foundation laid by the 1903 and 1904 campaign of this car both men rose to fame and fortune. Mr. Ford founded the Ford Motor Company and became the world's motor king. Mr. Oldfield became similarly supreme in the field of motor speed, and is now also a manufacturer, being President of the Oldfield Tire Company, with an annual output worth many millions.

When the Ford-Oldfield partnership was dissolved, in 1905, the old speed chariot drifted to California and lay for many years, forgotten in a private garage at Venice. It was discovered and bought by W. L. Hughson, San Francisco sportsman and motorcar merchant who placed it in running order, and is using it as a medium of publicity.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL CAR IN AMERICA

A Scientific Development

Your eyes alone will tell you that our new "Glenbrook" is one of the handsomest five-passenger cars that has ever been designed. But in order to really appreciate this model, you must take an actual demonstration on the road.

Then—and then only—will you understand what our engineers have accomplished in three years of patient experiment work and testing. Then—and then only—will you realize what giant strides have been made in motor and chassis development.

The "Glenbrook," you must remember, is a strictly modern car. It was developed during a period of world wide mechanical research and represents the last word in automotive science. It is actually and literally a motor car developed by the war.

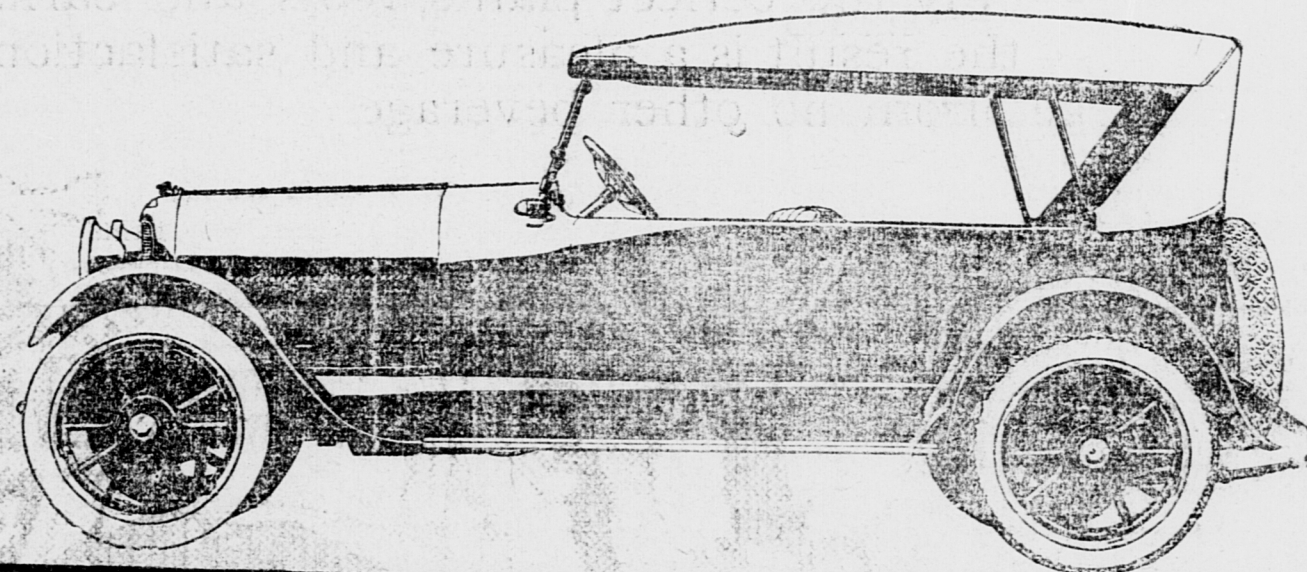

Just what these new standards of engineering have accomplished will be quite evident in a single demonstration. It will prove a liberal education, we believe, if you will permit our dealer to arrange for an appointment.

AN ORDINANCE

Adopting Amended Specifications And Instructions To Bidders.

Whereas, S. F. Crecelius, City Engineer, has this day recommended certain changes, amendments and additions to the specifications for street paving and to the instructions to bidders for paving First street, Second street, Third street, Irvine street, Main street and Lancaster avenue, said recommendation being attached hereto.

Be it now ordained by the Board of Council of the City of Richmond, Kentucky, that said recommendation be and it is hereby accepted and ratified by the Board of Council and adopted as a part of this ordinance and that the same be recorded on the City Minute Books as a part thereof.

This ordinance shall take effect from and after its passage, and publication as required by law.

Adopted this April 1, 1920.

AN ORDINANCE

Awarding A Contract For The Construction Of Sheet Asphalt Paving And Concrete Curbing And Guttering On First Street, Second Street, Irvine Street, Main Street And Lancaster Avenue In The City Of Richmond, Kentucky.

Whereas, by ordinance duly adopted on the 2nd day of October, 1919, and thereafter duly published as required by law, the Mayor of Richmond was authorized and directed to advertise for competitive sealed bids for the construction of paving, curbing and guttering on designated portions of First street, Second street, Third street, Irvine street, Main street and Lancaster avenue in the City of Richmond, according to plans and specifications attached to and made a part of said ordinance; and

Whereas, pursuant to the direction of said ordinance, competitive sealed bids were opened in the presence of the City Council in its Council Chamber at its regular meeting at 8:00 p. m. on April 1, 1920, and

Whereas, after due consideration of said bids, the City Council have decided that Lampton & Burks, a partnership composed of C. S. Lampton and R. W. Burks, of Louisville, Kentucky, have by their bid for the construction of said street paving of sheet asphalt and the construction of curbing and guttering of concrete, submitted the lowest and best bid for said work; and the said bid being in accordance with the requirements of said ordinance of October 2, 1919, and

Whereas, it is apparent to the Board of Council that by reason of the increased cost of labor and materials, the city has available for the payment of its share of said street construction, as provided in said ordinance of October 2, 1919, funds sufficient only to enable it to contract at this time for the paving, curbing and guttering of smaller portions of the said streets than appeared to be possible at the time of the passage of said ordinance of October 2, 1919, and as designated therein.

Be it now therefore ordained by the Board of Council of the city of Richmond, Kentucky, that a contract for the construction of paving with sheet asphalt and of curbing and guttering of concrete according to the proposal submitted by said Lampton & Burks under the provision of the said ordinance of October 2, 1919, and an ordinance of April 1, 1920, adopting amended specifications and instructions to bidders, and according to the city engineer's plans and specifications and instructions to bidders as amended, be and it is hereby awarded to said Lampton & Burks of Louisville, Kentucky, for the construction of said paving, curbing and guttering of Main street from the west line of the Louisville & Nashville railroad tracks on East Main street to the west line of Thurman avenue; of First street from the north line of Main street to the south line of Irvine street; of Irvine street from the east line of First street to the east line of Second street; Second street from the north line of Irvine street to the north line of Main street; Lancaster avenue from the south line of Main street to the south line of College street.

Be it further ordained that L. P. Evans, Mayor, be and he is hereby empowered and directed for and on behalf of the City of Richmond to enter into a contract with said Lampton & Burks

A NERVOUS WRECK

From Three Years' Suffering, Save Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all, and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent, for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today. Price 25c. N.C. 134
